Join the Certificate Program in Leadership in Human Services Management

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER!
If you’re a social worker or someone in the human services profession who’s interested in leadership, the Certificate Program in Leadership in Human Services Management is for you. Sponsored by Ohio State’s College of Social Work, the program is specially designed to prepare you for leadership positions in human service organizations. You’ll develop the necessary tools to have a successful future in social work management and administration—plus, you’ll earn 60+ hours of continuing education credit (including three hours of ethics and nine hours of supervision).

Here are just a few of the skills you’ll learn:
• Budgeting and fundraising
• Program planning
• Program evaluation
• Project management
• Ethical leadership
• Organizational culture
• And many, many more!

INTERESTED?
All you need is a bachelor’s degree in social work, a master’s degree in a related field, or either of these degrees if you are currently unemployed but seeking to re-enter the workforce. Classes are held one Thursday evening and one full Friday a month, January to August 2017. The application deadline is November 13, 2016.

This program has been made possible through the generosity of an alumni donor to the College of Social Work. We thank this donor for having a vision to enhance the college’s continuing education program and outreach to the social work practice community. Because of the philanthropic nature of this program, we are also able to offer limited opportunities for financial support.

The Ohio State University College of Social Work is an approved provider of the Ohio CSWMFT Board. Our social worker provider number is: RST111002.
