Dawn Steele

COLLEGE: College of Social Work

DEGREE: MSW ’04

NOTABLE: Alumna Dawn Steele is a member of the Region 4 Chorus of Sweet Adeline’s, which performed on July 12, 2012 at the World Choir Games and was awarded the gold! Forty-eight counties were represented by 360 choruses in 23 musical categories, all going after the gold. Dawn participated in the Barbershop genre, which is acapella.

This is the first time the choir games were held in the United States since its 40 year-old existence and 80 choruses will represent it. Typically held in Europe or Asia, Cincinnati, Ohio, hosted the 10-day event from July 4-14. President Obama gave the opening address at the start of the games.
