Important Notes

- You must register for the practicum (4189, 6189, 7189) each semester. This is not an automatic process.
- Students are not required (but are permitted) to attend practicum during university holidays and breaks.
- Students should review university and agency holidays and plan practicum hours around these dates.
- For further information about practicum policies, refer to the Field Manual.
- The most current calendar is available here: <http://csw.osu.edu/field-education/field-calendar/>.

University policy requires that all applications for graduation be submitted no later than the following. Late applications will not be accepted or reviewed until the following term.
